Instructions for Students:

It does not include written paper

Individually, prepare an oral presentation as if it were a documentary.

Choose an interesting topic (example: animals, environment, space, history, famous places, technology, culture).

Organize your presentation into 3 parts:

- ☐ Introduction: Present the topic and explain why it is important.
- ☐ Development: Give facts, details, and examples (use visuals like pictures, slides, or short props).
- ☐ Conclusion: Summarize the key points and leave the audience with one final message.

Speak in English the entire time (do not read from paper, just use notes).

The maximum time is 5 minutes.

You can use PowerPoint, printed images, or simply narration.
